Venue: State Sainik Board, Raipur, Chhattisgarh

Organized by: 27 CG Battalion NCC, Raipur

Event: Blood Donation Camp

Chief Guest: Brigadier D.K. Mahapatra Sir
(Group Commander, Delhi Headquarters)

Introduction:

A Blood Donation Camp was successfully organized on 23rd June 2025 at the premises of the State Sainik Board, Raipur. The camp was coordinated by the 27 CG Battalion NCC Raipur and saw the active participation of soldiers, ex-servicemen, their families, NCC cadets, and CTOs.

The event began with a welcome note and a brief introduction highlighting the vital role of soldiers in national service, and the purpose behind conducting a blood donation camp. The aim was to raise awareness and motivate all attendees towards this noble cause.

Importance of Blood Donation:

Blood donation is a selfless act that helps save countless lives every day. Whether it's for surgeries, accidents, cancer treatment, or chronic illnesses, the need for blood is constant. Through this camp, the message of solidarity and social responsibility was spread among all present, especially the youth and cadets.

Address by Chief Guest – Brigadier D.K. Mahapatra

Brigadier D.K. Mahapatra Sir, Group Commander from Delhi Headquarters, graced the occasion as the chief guest. He was warmly welcomed by the organizing committee and cadets.

In his inspiring address, he shared valuable life experiences from his journey in the armed forces. He highlighted the core values of discipline, patriotism, and selfless service, motivating all cadets to adopt these in their lives. He encouraged NCC cadets to stay focused and work towards serving the nation in every possible way.

He further emphasized the importance of strong institutions such as:

Teachers – as nation builders

Farmers – as the backbone of the country

Doctors – as lifesavers

Armed Forces – as national protectors

Good Citizens – as responsible individuals shaping the future

NCC Cadets – as the future of the country and disciplined youth

Participation & Involvement

The camp saw enthusiastic participation from:

Ex-servicemen and their families

NCC cadets from various institutions

Serving soldiers

CTOs and Officers

Representatives from 7 Sainik Boards across Chhattisgarh

The presence and involvement of these diverse groups strengthened the bond between civilians and the defense community.

Highlights and Special Mentions:

The program acknowledged the achievements of Ex-NCC cadets, including the current Governor of Assam, who was once an NCC cadet from Chhattisgarh.

Vice-Chairman of the Sainik Board (Chittorgarh), also an ex-NCC cadet, shared his experiences and motivated the cadets.

Upcoming Sainik Board Meetings were announced, scheduled for July–August, focusing on Group B and D category welfare programs and discussions.

Conclusion:

The Blood Donation Camp was not just an event—it was a message of unity, service, and dedication. The guidance from Brigadier D.K. Mahapatra and the presence of dignitaries inspired everyone to contribute to society and stay committed to national values.

This event successfully reflected the spirit of NCC—Unity and Discipline, and created a lasting impression on the cadets and all attendees.
